CONVENTION HELD

REPUBLICANS GATHER TO ARRANGE FOR DELEGATES TO DISTRICT CONVENTION

FORD COUNTY DELEGATION

Will Be Accompanied to Hutch- inson by Large Crowds of Judge Madison's Friends

A convention was held by the Republicans of Ford county on Wednesday afternoon February 28th at the court house in Dodge City for the purpose of electing six delegates to the Seventh District Congressional Convention, which will meet in Hutchinson on March 15.

There was a good attendance and a general good feeling at the convention. The Republicans of Ford county are deeply interested in the candidacy of Judge Madison, and they are all jubilant over the fact that his nomination is a certainty.

The convention was presided over by L. G. Groberty. The usual Committees on Credentials, rules and order of business, resolutions and permanent organization were appointed and reported. The resolutions as adopted were as follows.

The Republicans of Ford county in convention assembled, re-assert our unflinching faith in, and our steadfast loyalty to the Republican party, firm in the belief that in the future, as in the past, it will always meet triumphantly all of the needs and responsibilities of government when the burden is left in its hands.

We rejoice to once more heartily endorse the valiant efforts and manifest success of President Theodore Roosevelt to secure such adjustment of National questions affecting public and private interests as may insure the greatest prosperity of the country at large, and a square deal for every man.

We express our belief in the ability and statesmanship of Senator Chester I. Long and Congressman Victor Murdock, and are proud that this district furnished two such men to the public service.

In the marvelous and rapid development of our country, we realize that many questions of laws and government must arise, and must be met and adjusted, and that the affairs of state should rest in the hands of our strongest and truest men, and we believe that the people of the Seventh District will not shirk the responsibility which rests upon them, personally, in selecting a Congressman from this district who is strong and true.

It will be our privilege and pleasure to offer for the selection of the coming Congressional Convention, one whose qualifications, character, and every act in official and private life we most heartily endorse. We commend Judge E. H. Madison to the Republicans of the Seventh district, as one who meets the requirements desirable in a Congressman, a man of strength, character and judgment, an earnest advocate of the principles of the Republican party and a strong supporter of the policies of President Roosevelt, a believer in the rights of the common people.

We are proud of his irreproachable record upon the bench in this district, always careful and painstaking, and ever displaying an impartial and conscientious spirit of fairness, which, coupled with his sound judgment has brought him the respect of the bar, and the confidence of the people.

It was voted unanimously to request Judge Madison to accept and submit to the convention a list of delegates and alternates.

Judge Madison was called to the room and informed of the action of the convention. He thanked the convention for the courtesy and stated that in selecting delegates he wanted the different sections of the county represented as nearly as possible.

The list of delegates submitted is: A. Russell, M. W. Sutton, Virgil Walker, J. F. Goudy, B. W. Gross and J. M. Zeldigh.

Alternates: L. G. Groberty, R. P. Fraure, O. T. Wright, J. D. Brown, H. W. Dorsett and Geo. Steele.

Judge Madison was called upon for a speech and made an earnest talk to the convention, which was composed of his neighbors and friends of Ford county. He referred to coming here years ago as a boy and spoke of the favors he has received from the people of this county. He said that he wanted now to thank them for their every act of kindness, and that where ever the future might lead him, that if it should hold for him the success for which he would labor, that always his first and warmest gratitude would be to the people of Ford county.

On account of his position upon the bench, Judge Madison has kept practically free from political actions and utterances, and on this account he said, that in view of his candidacy for Congressman he wanted to tell his friends and neighbors just how and where he stood upon certain questions, so that if he should be sent to congress, his friends could watch his course and know for themselves whether or not he was keeping faith with them.

He discussed at length the dangers of unchecked combinations of unlimited wealth, and also railroad rates.

He believes in a sane, reasonable but firm chess upon the great corporations and trusts. He believes in rigid enforcement of present laws—and if they prove ineffective—of forming stronger measures, and the penalty of imprisonment for those who violate those laws.

The railways, Judge Madison considers the State and National highways, and he believes that every man should enjoy exactly the same privileges of the highways, and that discriminations, rebates and extortion should not and must not be permitted.

He was applauded at many times during his speech.

Judge Madison has announced in case of his nomination he desires that Mr. Russell of this place be chairman of the Seventh District Congressional Committee, and his campaign manager, and it is certain that he could not have made a better selection. Mr. Russell has been one of the most prominent workers in the Republican party in this county for many years and Judge Madison has the utmost faith in his ability and judgment.

"SUGAR BEET CIRCUIT"

Coming Race Circuit of West Will Be Organized Next Saturday

The coming race circuit of Kansas, the "Sugar Beet Circuit" will be organized next Saturday.

The meeting will be held in Garden City and will be attended by representatives from Dodge City, Kinsley, Garden City, La Junta, Los Animas and La Mar.

The certainty of the Arkansas Valley in Western Kansas and Eastern Colorado becoming the richest and most thickly populated district of the country makes this circuit one of great coming importance, and the plans are to get the circuit organized and started by a splendid series of meetings this year.

The Ford county fair association will play an important part in the circuit, and Secretary Sam Gallagher will go to Garden City to assist in organizing.

This year the dates for the meetings will be arranged to connect with the Kansas circuit at Great Bend, so that the horsemen from the west may make the Kansas circuit and strike Oklahoma at the right time, making a good season's campaign with short moves between towns.

This will soon be a great country and the Sugar Beet circuit will be able in a few years to put up the most attractive purses, so that the best horses will be brought to the meetings.

Dear Sir: Pay more for DeVoe; be glad to. It is full measure and honest. Paint is a watch-dog. How would you like a watch-dog that wouldn't watch from two to five o'clock in the morning? That's short measure.

How would you like a watch-dog that had a way of wagging his tail at a burglar? That's false paint. The burglar is rain and snow.

Go by the name: DeVoe lead-and-zinc.

Word from the Midland Lyceum Bureau announces the Meistersingers Male Quartette ready for service again, and gives the date of appearance for Dodge City, Thursday evening March 15. This leaves an intervening date to make sure of their arriving here in time, not to keep the audience in waiting. It is the last number of the Midland Lyceum Co's, and voted everywhere by all odds, the most taking and satisfactory. At the Presbyterian church, the popular prices of 35, 25 and 15 cents. J. W. THOMPSON.

A low rate will be secured. We are sure of one and one third fare for the trip and may get a one fare rate.

A fire was discovered in the cottage owned by Mrs. Aker on Third avenue Monday. The cottage was in line with the McCurdy lumber yard on the south and a gas was blowing from the north making the situation very dangerous. The fire company covered itself with glory and even the Waterworks Company is to be commended. With good firemen and adequate pressure the fire was speedily checked. The inside of the cottage was badly damaged and its contents were a complete loss.

The Philomaths met last Friday with Mrs. Considine. There was a large attendance of members and three guests, Mrs. McCarg, Mrs. Will Gardner and Mrs. Pixley. "The Maiden and the Man"

Said the Maiden to the Man,
"I'll disclose to you a plan
How to win my hand and heart—
Just shake those clothes—they're shams
Get the kind that's made by 'Lamm's'
And as one we'll then depart."

He did as she commanded
And when coming back thus "BRAND"—ed
He was greeted with sweet laughter:
She said—"Much to me you're worth
Clothed with THE BEST ON EARTH"
And they lived happy ever after.

Every man who seeks to clothe himself with the satisfactory kind of made-to-measure apparel should follow the maiden's injunction.
